FINANCIAL.

RECENT events in the financial world have demonstrated that the safest and most stable investments, returning dollar for dollar with the stipulated interest, are first deed of trust notes secured on improved real estate in correct proportion to its market value. We have on hand such investments in sums of $250, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and upward, yielding 7 per cent interest per annum, payable semi-annually, with gilt edge security. We are also prepared to place and furnish much farger sums.

Our experience with this class of investments covers more than 30 years, with uniform success, and satisfaction on the part of our investing and borrowing clients. WM. H. SAUNDERS & CO., Phones Main 1016-1017. 1433 K St.

AT THE THEATERS

(Continued from Page 8.) which caught on immediately. Char ley Goldie and Charles Marshall ran a close second in the comedy honors. Miss Arlone Johnson, the possessor of an excellent voice, rendered her song numbers in fine style, making her the decided hit of the feminine contingent. Others who helped ma terially in putting across the bur-lesque are: Jimmy Raymond, Irving Karo, Doris Sennett, Helen Gould and Phil Fletcher's celebrated "Hury Burly" Jazz band.

The chorus is good to look at and can both dance and sing, while they were elaborately costumed.

KNICKERBOCKER-"The Old Nest."

"A Hero Pro Teem," is the title of the comedy which yesterday was presented for the first time at Crandall's Knickerbocker Theater. In this amusing laughmaker are em-bodied many novel comedy elements that appealed strongly to yesterday's capacity audiences. The chief feature of the early-weel bill at the Knickerbocker is Goldwyn's spochal picturization of Rupert Hughes' widely read snort story, "The Old Nest," interpreted by a wonderful cast, a complete review of which will be found in connection with the Metro-

CHESAPEAKE BEACH.

With an immense crowd in at tendance, the regular season at Chesapeake Beach, the Maryland bay resort, came to a brilliant close last Hundreds visited the Beach for the grand finale. The clown orchestra went through wild antics in playing the farewell number, and dancers ended their last toddle with a burst of hilarity. Although the numerous boardwalk amusements closed last night for the season, trains will continue to be run to and from the resort or reduced schedule, and it is expected that hundreds will visit the beach to take advantage of the excellent fish Cervantes' Portrait Found.
